

Please support xm radio broad casts of weather and traffic. the local radio stations donot do a very good job at getting the information to us, the drivers of semi trucks to be able to dervirt from the planned trip so we contiune our trips more effective and to use our new DOT rules for driving not sitting in traffic. Plus the weather forecasts are much more informational so we can drive safely on our journey around this great nation. thankyou Terry A. Miller